Charles Béar QC is recognised as one of the English Bar's outstanding advocates.

His practice is broad and includes a wide range of commercial litigation and arbitration, fraud, shareholder disputes, aviation work, and judicial review. He is equally happy representing major institutions or individuals.

As well as a noted trial advocate and cross-examiner, Charles has significant appellate experience having appeared in four Supreme Court / House of Lords appeals and on numerous occasions in the Court of Appeal. His successful advocacy at that level can be viewed on the Supreme Court website, or at the Court of Appeal here.

Charles has a record of being instructed in the most difficult and demanding cases, often replacing previous counsel. His extensive commercial disputes experience includes fraud and conspiracy, restitution, aviation, pharmaceutical/life sciences, offshore trusts, business sale and joint venture disputes as well as freezing injunctions, post-termination disputes and breach of fiduciary duty claims.

Charles was called to the Bar in 1986, was appointed Queen's Counsel in 2003, and has sat as a Recorder on the South Eastern Circuit since 2003. He has been chair of the Commercial Bar Association India Committee since its inception.

He is describe in The Legal 500 as "probably the most outstanding trial and appellate advocate of his generation" and "a formidable opponent" and within Chambers & Partners' as "a fantastic advocate".

Recent Highlights

Victor Pisante and others v (1) Logothetis (2) Libra Holdings (3) Lomar Shipping [2022] EWHC 161 (Comm), Commercial Court

Representing the successful claimant in the trial of its claim for fraudulent misrepresentation over a complex shipping transaction in which the defendants refinanced shipping interests with the private equity house KKR. Mr Justice Andrew Baker held that cross-examination had established that the first defendant had been guilty of deception when he persuaded the claimant to invest in the deal.

Motorola Solutions v Hytera Communications Corp [2021] QB 744, Court of Appeal

Successfully appealing the Commercial Court's grant of a US$350 million post-judgment freezing order. The decision is a leading authority on without prejudice communications and establishes the evidential test for the exceptional cases when they can be admitted.

Chen-Mei Huan v Victory Success Holdings, 22 September 2021, Eastern Caribbean Court of Appeal

In the latest episode of a long-running BVI dispute over the New Beijing Hotel and casino in Macau, Charles acted for the successful defendants who were alleged to have obtained title to the hotel by extortion and kidnapping. The Court of Appeal set aside the interim injunction for non-disclosure, lack of locus standi and on the balance of convenience, and granted a stay of the underlying claim on forum non conveniens grounds.

R (Jet2.com) v Civil Aviation Authority [2020] QB 1027, Court of Appeal

Acting for Jet2 judicially reviewing the CAA for alleged misuse of powers in a media campaign. This case successfully established a major point of principle in the law of privilege (dominant purpose and legal advice).

One Step Support Ltd v Morris-Garner [2019] AC 642, Supreme Court

Charles acted for the successful appellants in this landmark decision which overturned the lower courts and 45 years of awards of so-called Wrotham Park damages. Lord Reed's judgment singled out the "strongly argued submissions".
