Recent Highlights

Al Khorafi & Others v Sarasin Alpen & Another, DIFC Court of First Instance, Claim No CFI 026/2009 Judgment 7 October 2015 and DIFC Court of Appeal, Claim No CA 003/2015 Judgment 3 March 2016

Acting for a financial services provider on an appeal to the DIFC Court of Appeal against findings that it had mis-sold structured Notes to claimants on a leveraged basis, and on a quantum determination.

SRA v James, SRA v MacGregor & SRA v Naylor [2018] 4 WLR 163

Acting for the SRA in three appeals to the Divisional Court heard at the same time against decisions made by the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal not to strike off three solicitors due to exceptional circumstances, leading Heather Emmerson and Andrew Bullock. The appeals were allowed in all three cases and sanctions of striking off substituted. These are now the leading cases on what constitutes exceptional circumstances.

SRA v Malins [2018] EWCA Civ 366

Acting for the SRA in its appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision of Mostyn J which had held lack of integrity and dishonesty were synonymous concepts. The Court of Appeal held that lack of integrity was not synonymous with dishonesty and that whilst all dishonesty lacked integrity, there can be lack of integrity which is not dishonest. This is now the leading case on the meaning of integrity in the regulatory / disciplinary context.

SRA v Senior, Baker McKenzie & Others

Acting for the firm in its successful defence against allegations made by the SRA at the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal arising out of the conduct of an internal investigation into sexual misconduct.

Newham v Barclays Bank

Acting for Newham Council in a claim against Barclays Bank for misrepresentation arising out of the sale by Barclays to Newham of LIBOR linked LOBOs.
