Matthew Gearing KC is an exceptionally highly regarded litigation lawyer, with particular expertise in international arbitration, where he enjoys global recognition.

Matthew is a leading international arbitration lawyer. He has particular experience of acting in arbitrations across Asia, having been principally based in Hong Kong for many years prior to returning to the UK in 2020. Matthew is also called to the Singapore Bar.

Within Chambers Global and Chambers Asia Pacific 2024, he is ranked in the Spotlight Table for Arbitration (International) in the Asia Pacific region, in Band 1 for his Dispute Resolution arbitration work in The English Bar – Singapore, and in Experts Based Abroad – Philippines. In recognition of his contribution to the Asian legal community, in 2019, Chambers & Partners awarded Matthew the Outstanding Achievement Award. He has also been listed in the Hall of Fame for International Arbitration in Hong Kong by The Legal 500 and is currently ranked by the directory for his commercial work across the Asia Pacific region. In 2023, Matthew was shortlisted for International Arbitration Counsel Silk of the Year by The Legal 500.

Matthew's experience extends to both commercial and investment treaty arbitrations, including under various rules such as ICC, UNCITRAL, SIAC, HKIAC, KLRCA, SCC, LCIA and ICSID, and in a variety of sectors including technology, financial services, energy and natural resources and manufacturing.

He spent 24 years at Allen & Overy before being called to the Bar. He was Chairperson of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre for three years and was previously co-chair of the LCIA Young International Arbitration Group. He is now a Vice-President of the LCIA Court. Matthew is also a Hong Kong solicitor-advocate (non-practising) and has been called to the Bar in Western Australia (2023).

In addition to acting as counsel, Matthew sits as arbitrator across a wide range of cases including in ICSID and other investment treaty matters.
